

What Is So Scary About Evangelism . . . And How Do You Overcome Those Fears?

Most believers admit that they do not speak to others about Christ with any consistency.
Ask the question, "Why don't you?" and they will answer in one word:

_____ - _____ - _____ - _____

What are we afraid of? One or all of four items frighten us. They are:

The goal is to get them talking while YOU listen!

b. You begin by _____ up, not _____ up.

c. The flow of the conversation must be _____,
not _____.

That's why for some people it will take longer to turn the conversation than for others.

B. What's the solution?

1. _____ the conversation.

Talk about three areas:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. Let _____ direct the flow of the conversation.

3. _____ from experience.

The more you do it, the easier it becomes. Your repertoire of transitions increases.

4. As you listen and talk, _____ that determine if this conversation might be an open door for the gospel.

- What do you think the future holds for most of us?
- Do you think people today are more worried and confused than they used to be?
- Why do you think the problems in the world seem to be getting worse, not better?

5. Move the conversation from the _____ to the _____ to the _____.

- Do you enjoy reading about religious topics or subjects?
- Have you attended or become involved in any church in this area?
- Have you ever examined some of the teachings of the Bible?

- Don't you think that the most important thing of all is that we know for certain where we are going when we die?
- Has anybody ever taken a Bible and shown you how you can know? May I?

II. I do not know _____ to present the gospel.

A. What's the problem?

1. You may not have clear in your mind the message of the gospel and the meaning of "saving faith."

1 Cor. 2:1-2

2. A tendency to forget _____ people are brought to Christ.
